We have that ability, yes, but no movement has been successful without a face. It's just the nature of human beings. We need directive.

If this got traction anybody could be the face. We ALL would be the face. Trump can be the face but he doesn't need to be.

Normally, I'd agree. The reason it needs to be him now is we have 33 days. We do not have time to develop the human capital and themes necessary. I mean look at this landing page--the guy is surrounded by bald eagles and the American flag. That sort of iconography, we cannot just insert anyone into it's place. But, I'm with you. We do need something to happen. If we had state-specific .wins I could see more organization.

This post from me is my true belief. It's on us. It's time to pick a date for a mass showing of non-consent and to separate the Patriots from theLARPs.

What you are talking about should be bigger, than any one man, because that is a single point of failure in the system. I don't know how, but this has to work without any one specific individual, otherwise it is trivially easy to defeat it by removing that one person.

Every single battle or war that was run had either one person or a few people at most directing the operations and initiatives.

This isn't like anything we've ever encountered or seen before. We don't need leaders. We need to lead ourselves, nut up, and be in DC throughout all of January and build to a 1/21 crescendo.

If not Trump, someone like a General Flynn or even better, the state of TX.

Free men do not ask for permission, nor wait for orders passed down from their imagined masters.

Free men do.
